PROCEEDINGS (IN CHAMBERS):

Order to Show Cause Why Defendants
Should Not Be Dismissed for Failure to
File a Status Report and Comply With a
Court Order

Pro se Plaintiff Loyd Tucker (“Plaintiff”) has sued Defendant Los Angeles County (the “County”) and sixteen individual Defendants (the “Social Worker Defendants”) who work for the County’s Department of Children and Family Services (“DCFS”). Because three Social Worker Defendants had not appeared in this action (Defendants Nelson Sanchez, Ofelya Edgard, and Nayeli Alanis), on July 3, 2019, the Court ordered Plaintiff to either file a status report concerning his service efforts or move for default judgment. (Dkt. 39.) That same day, Defendant Edgard answered the Second Amended Complaint. (Dkt. 40.) On July 8, 2019, the Court ordered Plaintiff to file a status report on or before September 3, 2019, “describing whether he has ascertained the addresses of Defendants Sanchez and Alanis through discovery and whether he has served Defendants.” (Dkt. 42.) To date, the Court has not received any status report from Plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, on or before September 20, 2019, Plaintiff shall discharge this order to show cause by filing one of the following: (1) proof of service of Defendants Sanchez and Alanis, or (2) a status report and a response explaining why Plaintiff has failed to follow the Court’s order.
